Choir: And upon those in the tombs bestowing life.

The usual beginning. No Kathisma.

On "Lord, I have cried ...," 6 Stichera, 3 from the Pentecostarion, in Tone V: Spec. Mel.: "Rejoice ...":

The all-holy mid-feast of the Savior's Resurrection * hath now appeared like the brightness of noon, * shining upon the world with the divine grace of Christ's arising, * flashing forth with incorruption's unerring signs * revealing His Ascension into the heights. * The most bright feast of Pentecost is manifestly radiant * with the Holy Spirit's descent to us. * Wherefore it bestoweth upon our souls  peace and great mercy.

Having reached the feast of Mid-Pentecost, * The Lord doth now impart the streams of His great compassion, * like unto a Divine River of Glory, * crying aloud unto all: * "Ye that are athirst, come unto me and draw forth abundantly. * For I am a well-spring of sympathy and an abyss of mercy, * pouring forth forgiveness upon the World, * purging sins, and expunging maladies'. * And He doth save them that keep His Resurrection's memorial, * and doth protect them that honor and with love celebrate His Ascension in glory,  granting unto our souls peace and great mercy.

Having stood within the temple's court, * He Who is the uncircumscribable God and Lord, * Who by nature is God, * and for our sake became incarnate, * and circumscribed in the flesh * poured forth for all mankind vivifying teachings, saying: * Be ye purified in your souls; * Quench the burning heat of the passions'. * Let no one be deprived of this draught, * for upon him that doth drink I bestow the divine grace * of an immortal and better heavenly Kingdom, * which he shall share with Me, the Creator,  and thus be glorified.

And 3 Stichera from the Menaion Glory ..., Both now ..., in Tone VIII:

Thou, the Wisdom of God, * didst come unto the temple at Mid-feast, * teaching and reproving the disobedient Jews, * the Pharisees, and Scribes, * and with boldness didst Thou cry unto them: * He that thirsteth, let him come unto Me and drink living water, * and he shall never again thirst unto eternity. * From him that believeth in My goodness, * rivers of eternal life shall pour forth from his noetic belly. * O how great is Thy goodness and compassion,  O Christ our God! Glory be to Thee.

"O joyous light ...," Prokeimenon, in Tone VIII:

Prokeimenon: Behold now, bless ye the Lord, * all ye servants of the Lord.

Verse: Ye that stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God.

Then, "Vouchsafe O Lord ...,"

The Litany: Let us complete our evening ...,

On the Aposticha, the Stichera of the Resurrection, in Tone IV:

Unceasingly worshiping Thy life-giving Cross, O Christ God, * we glorify Thy Resurrection on the third day, * for through it, O All-powerful one, * Thou hast renewed corrupted human nature * and shown us the way to heaven,  since Thou alone art good and the Lover of mankind.

Verse: Unto Thee have I lifted up mine eyes, unto Thee that dwellest in heaven. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hands of their masters, as the eyes of the handmaid look unto the hands of her mistress, so do our eyes look unto the Lord our God, * until He take pity on us.

A Hymn of Compunction: O Lord, I desired to blot out with my tears * the handwriting of all mine iniquities, * and thus to please Thee with repentance for the rest of my life, * but the enemy beguileth me and ever warreth against my soul. * O Lord, before I utterly perish,  do Thou save me.

Verse: Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us, for greatly are we filled with abasement. Greatly hath our soul been filled therewith; let reproach come upon them that prosper, * and abasement on the proud.

Martyricon: O Thou Who art glorified in the memorial of Thy Saints, * O Christ God: * since Thou art entreated by them,  do Thou send down upon us Thy great mercy.

Glory ..., Both now ..., in Tone VI:

Having come together on the Mid-feast * between Thy Resurrection and the divine coming of Thy Holy Spirit, O Christ, * We praise the mysteries of Thy wonders.  Wherefore, on this day, do Thou send down Thy great mercy unto us.

Then "Now lettest Thy servant ...," Trisagion ..., "Our Father ...," Then:

The Dismissal Troparion, in Tone VIII:

At Mid-feast give Thou my thirsty soul to drink of the waters of piety; * for Thou, O Savior, didst cry out to all: * Whosoever is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink.  Wherefore, O Well-spring of life, Christ our God, glory be to Thee.

THE ACTS OF THE HOLY APOSTLES: (ACTS 12:12 - 17)

In those days, Peter came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying. And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate. And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel. But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished. But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

Alleluia, in Tone I:

Verse: Remember Thy congregation, which Thou hast purchased from the beginning.

Verse: God is our King before the ages, He hath wrought salvation in the midst of the earth.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN (8:42 - 51)

Jesus said unto the Jews who came unto Him: If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? Jesus answered,

I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me. And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

In place of "It is meet" The Zadostoinik is chanted from ODE IX of the Feast.

Virginity is alien to motherhood, * and childbearing is a thing strange to virgins: * yet in thee, O Theotokos, both have come to pass. * Therefore we, and all the nations of the earth, * without ceasing call thee blessed.

Communion Verse: He that eateth My Flesh and drinketh My Blood abideth in Me and I in him, saith the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
