

TONE TWO
SATURDAY EVENING
AT LITTLE VESPERS

On “Lord, I have cried ...,” 4 Stichera:
The Resurrection Stichera, in Tone II:

Verse: From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch * let Israel hope in the Lord.

Come let us worship God the Word, * begotten of the Father before all ages, * incarnate of the Virgin Mary; * for having endured the Cross, He was handed over for burial, * as He himself had willed, * and having risen from the dead He hath saved me, * the whole man, ** who hath gone astray.

Verse: For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption; * and He shall redeem Israel out of all his iniquities.

Come let us worship God the Word, * begotten of the Father before all ages, * incarnate of the Virgin Mary; * for having endured the Cross, He was handed over for burial, * as He himself had willed, * and having risen from the dead He hath saved me, * the whole man, ** who hath gone astray.

Verse: O praise the Lord, all ye nations; * praise Him, all ye peoples.

Glory ..., Both now ..., Theotokion, in Tone II:

Contemplating the wonder of the great mystery! * I confess Thy Godhead. * For as the Lover of mankind Emmanuel hath opened the gate, yet as God hath not broken the seal of virginity, * rather he hath come forth from the womb in a manner similar to which he had entered, * becoming incarnate in a manner similar to his conception. * Impassibly hath he entered, and ineffably hath he come forth, * in accordance with the saying of the Prophet, * “This gate shall remain shut; that none may enter through it, * but only the Lord God of Israel, ** who hath great mercy.”

Verse: Hearken, O daughter, and see, and incline thine ear; * and forget thine own people and thy father’s house.

Without restraint I have committed every iniquity, * without limit every sin, * O wretch that I am; * I have become worthy of every condemnation. * Grant me, O Virgin, the means of repentance, * that I may appear uncondemned. * For I have appointed thee as my intercessor, * and I call thee my protectress. ** Do thou not put me to shame, * O Bride of God.

Verse: The rich among the people * shall entreat thy countenance.

On the Aposticha, the Resurrection Stichera, in Tone II:

Verse: To do among them the judgment that is written * This glory shall be to all His saints.

Everything that hath breath and every creature doth glorify Thee, O Lord, * for through Thy Cross Thou hast destroyed death * and thus shown the multitude of peoples Thy Resurrection from the dead, ** as Thou alone lovest mankind.

Verse: Praise ye God in His saints, * praise Him in the firmament of His power.

Let the Jews tell how the soldiers lost the King they were guarding. * Why then did the stone not guard the rock of life? * Either let them give up the one who was buried or adore Him as risen, * exclaiming together with us: * “Glory to the multitude of Thy mercies: ** O Savior, glory be to Thee!”

Verse: Praise Him for His mighty acts, * praise Him according to the multitude of His greatness.

Rejoice O ye peoples and be glad! * for an Angel sat upon the grave stone * and hath given us good tidings saying: * “Christ is risen from the dead * and hath filled the universe with sweet fragrance. ** Rejoice O ye peoples and be glad!”

Verse: Praise Him with the sound of trumpet, * praise Him with the psaltery and harp.

Before Thy conception, O Lord, * an Angel brought the greeting “Rejoice” to the one full of grace: * at Thy Resurrection an Angel rolled away the stone from Thy glorious grave. * The one revealed the signs of joy instead of sorrow; * the other instead of death hath proclaimed to us the Master, and giver of life. * Wherefore we cry unto Thee, * “O Benefactor of all mankind, ** Lord, glory be to Thee!”

Other Stichera of Anatolius:

Verse: Praise Him with timbrel and dance, * praise him with strings and flute.

The women sprinkled sweet spices * mingled with their tears upon Thy grave, * but their mouths were filled with joy as they exclaimed, ** “The Lord hath arisen!”

Verse: Praise Him with tuneful cymbals, praise Him with cymbals of jubilation. * Let every breath praise the Lord.

Let the nations and the peoples praise Christ our God, * who willingly endured the Cross for us and suffered three days in Hades; * let them worship His Resurrection from the dead, ** through which all the ends of the world have been enlightened.

Verse: Arise, O Lord my God, let Thy hands be lifted high; * forget not Thy paupers to the end.

Thou wast crucified, and Thou wast buried, O Christ, * as Thou didst will; * Thou hast despoiled death as God and Master, ** granting the world eternal life and Thy great mercy.

Verse: I will confess Thee, O Lord, with my whole heart, * I will tell of all Thy wonders.

In truth, O wicked ones, * by sealing the tomb you have granted us a greater wonder; * for the guards having complete knowledge of that which took place were compelled by you to say * “while we slept the Disciples came and stole him.” * And who would steal a corpse, especially one that is naked? * But He hath arisen by His own authority as God, * leaving behind His grave-clothes in the tomb. * Come, O ye Jews, * see that He did not burst the seals, * the One who hath trampled on death * and granted mankind life without end ** and His great mercy.
